Boom Boom Basics: Peer Review Session Info

Aimed to help presenters gain priceless feedback to apply to their own artistic editing processes, AND to give presenters the tools to constructively critique themselves solo better at home. The open format invites all attendees to share feedback with each presenter, in a curated process lead and moderated by Boom Boom Basics Headmastress Deanna Danger and "Twerking Teacher," Lottie Ellington. Presenting sign up is first come first serve, and space is limited. Email boomboombasics@gmail.com to sign up.

OPEN TO ALL BURLESQUE & VARIETY PERFORMERS OF ALL GENRES AND ALL EXPERIENCE LEVELS!

$5 suggested donation to participate, 100% of which goes to studio rental. PLEASE NO LURKERS! This is not a "show," attendees should be burlesque or variety performers themselves. Lurkers will be asked to leave, as we aim to provide a safe, supportive, inspiring, comfortable studio classroom atmosphere to receive thoughtful & experienced feedback from your local instructors, producers and peers!

Participants should bring their own music on ipod or mobile playing device, bring as much or as little costuming or props as needed to show the routine (the more the routine can be shown in full, the more effective feedback can be given)!

2019 schedule:
Every 4th Tuesday, 8-9pm at Dogtown Dance Theatre, third floor studio (#3).

If you are interested in learning "The Art of the Tease," please visit Virginia's premier Burlesque & Performing arts studio online at www.boomboombasics.com for information about our Beginners Burlesque/Boylesque program and drop-in movement class offerings. For questions, please email boomboombasics@gmail.com.

Sign up for our newsletter mailing lists at:
www.boomboombasics.com

Find us on instagram! @BoomBoomBasics